

VOS BURGH IS ELECTED CITY CLERK

He Received a Plurality of 62 for That Office—City Attorney Owen and Health Commissioner von Neupert Are Unopposed.

THERE WILL BE ONLY ONE CHANGE IN CITY COUNCIL

Present Supervisors in the Six City Wards Are Again Elected by Large Majorities.

Tuesday was a typical spring election day, cold, wet and stormy, and as a result only 1,244 votes were cast for the various candidates for clerk, the only municipal office over which there was any contest. Last spring 1,347 votes were cast for mayor and over 1,600 at the previous spring election. Nevertheless some hard work was done among city and ward candidates and their friends yesterday and for days before, and the result as between Finch and Vosburgh, while a surprise to some, was predicted by others.

There will be but one change in the present council, G. L. Koch succeeding Adolph Cook in the 6th ward. All the present supervisors were re-elected. The results follow:

	1st	2d	3d	4th	5th	6th
Finch.....	55	84	43	84	53
Frydrychowicz.	30	9	19	245	12	5
Jarvis.....	6	4	8	7	4	5
Vosburgh.....	97	122	54	96	72	35

Finch received a total of 414 votes, Frydrychowicz 320, Jarvis 34 and Vosburgh 476, giving the latter a plurality over Finch, next highest, of 62. Jarvis was the Social Democratic candidate and the others ran independent, but all under the head of individual nominations.

W. F. Owen for city attorney and Dr. C. von Neupert, Sr., for city health commissioner had no opposition.

In the First ward R. K. McDonald for alderman received 132 votes to 45 for Svend Docka, the former's majority being 87. G. L. Park for supervisor was elected without opposition.

In the Third ward C. A. Schenk for alderman had 128 votes to 39 for John Goodrich, a majority of 89. F. M. Playman for supervisor received 125 to 35 for A. H. Strong, a majority of 90.

In the Fourth ward there were three candidates for alderman. Frank Urowski received 207 votes, Joseph Milczarek 157 and Theo. Larson 26. Mr. Urowski's plurality is 50. Joseph Mozuch for supervisor received 243 votes to 137 for John Firkus, a majority for the former of 111.

In the Fifth ward Irvin Altenburg for alderman received 121 votes, Chas. Chamberlain 43 and Louis Schuweiler 6, giving Altenburg a plurality of 78. Jas. B. Carpenter for supervisor had a majority of 92 over C. N. Miltimore, the vote being 127 to 35.

Carl Foster, Del King and G. L. Koch were candidates for alderman in the 6th ward, their vote being 17, 34 and 43 respectively, giving Mr. Koch a plurality of 9. For supervisor G. D. Aldrich received 67 votes and Luke Janowak 22, the former's majority being 45.

While assisting in moving some household goods at about 5:30 o'clock last evening, E. W. The former is still there and a card received from her this morning says that Mr. Kheil was examined by a Milwaukee specialist on Monday, the latter giving every encouragement for the patient's recovery, although it may take some time.

John Grubba, who had been engaged in the house moving business in this city for a number of years, died at his home, 1013 Briggs street, at 3 o'clock last Saturday morning. Death resulted from a cancer, which first made its appearance on his lower lip over two years ago, and although everything possible was done to stop its progress, he visiting specialists at Rochester, Minn., Chippewa Falls and other points, his sufferings were ended only by death. For nearly six months he had been confined to his home and bed.

John Grubba was born in Prussia-Poland, May 14, 1858, and came to this country with his parents when 7 years old. They came directly to Stevens Point, locating in the town of Hull. For over a quarter of a century he had lived in this city, and was engaged in house moving and other like work, and was an industrious, honest and honorable citizen, one who retained the full confidence of the public.

Mr. Grubba was married in July, 1884, and is survived by his wife, four sons and three daughters. They are Robert, Mrs. Theresa Folkowski, Dominick, Anton, Dorothy, Regina and Thomas, all of this city. VETERAN RAILROADER DIES

Frank P. Featherly Passes Away at His Home on South Side—Funeral Friday.

Frank P. Featherly, for upwards of twenty-five years a well known employee of the Wisconsin Central railroad, both in the train service and as yardmaster and switchman in the local yards, died at his home, 233 Wayne street, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been in poor health for the last three or four years and since the Saturday after last Thanksgiving day was confined to his home continually. The direct cause of death was tuberculosis of the throat. While Mr. Featherly was in almost constant misery during the past five or six months, he remained cheerful and until very recently had hopes for ultimate recovery. During this long siege the gentleman was constantly looked after by his wife, who attended to his every want, and although his death ends long suffering, his passing away is none the less sad to her. Frank had the happy faculty of making and retaining friends, scores of whom did all possible to make his last hours comfortable.

Mr. Featherly was born at Owosso, Mich., 46 years ago the 3rd of last March. He began railroad work early in life and in 1882 moved to this city, where he continued employment with the Central until about three years ago, when failing eyesight compelled him to relinquish his position of switchman. A part of the time since then Mr. Featherly worked at the Joerns table factory and also for a time was employed as a millwright at the wall paper plant. During the first fourteen years of his employment with the Wisconsin Central he filled the positions of brakeman and conductor.

Mr. Featherly's first wife was Cora Myers, who died in 1893. July 11, 1895, Mr. Featherly was married in this city to Mrs. Anna Topping. Besides the widow and son, Frank Featherly, Jr., the deceased is survived by his aged mother, who lives at Sherrard, Ill., and seven sisters and one brother. The brother is a resident of Chicago, as are also three of the sisters. The others live at Sherrard, Kansas City and in Texas.

Mr. Featherly was a member of E. R. Knowlton lodge, No. 357, B. R. T., whose headquarters are at Fond du Lac. The last of this month he would have been connected with this organization for 25 years. Mr. Featherly was also one of the oldest members of Shaurette Lodge, I. O. O. F., in this city, and it is expected that a delegation of Odd Fellows will attend the funeral and conduct their ritualistic services at the cemetery.

The funeral will be held from the residence at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and from St. Paul's M. E. church at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. T. W. North officiating, followed by interment in Forest cemetery.

CHIEF HAFSOOS TO STAY

Excellent Head of Police Department is Chosen by Commission to Succeed Himself.

The five members of the police and fire commission, Geo. L. Rogers, R. A. Cook, H. J. Week, A. C. Krembs and S. H. Wozalla, met at the city hall on Monday evening, as per law, and re-appointed John Hafsoos as chief of police. There was but one other applicant for the position, Chris Geisler, who held this office for one term several years ago and also served as a patrolman.

Mr. Hafsoos, who was chosen to this office at the spring election two years ago, has proven an efficient, faithful officer, a careful guardian of the public peace and has never been negligent in his official duties. These facts are recognized by the commissioners, and their action gives general satisfaction to the community.

Zeller-Parker Marriage.

Miss Ada Lynn Parker, younger daughter of Mrs. Robt. Parker, 249 North street, was united in marriage at 8 o'clock last Monday evening to Peter J. Zeller, recently of Decatur, Ill. The ring service was used by the officiating clergyman, Rev. John A. Stemen. There were no attendants and only relatives and a few near friends witnessed the important event, which took place at the Parker home.

The bride is an elementary graduate of the Normal school, class of 1910, later filling positions at the local telephone exchange and in McCulloch's grocery department. Last October Miss Parker went to Racine to enter a training school for nurses, where she was wooed and won by Mr. Zeller. The gentleman is a plumber by profession. He came to Stevens Point a couple of weeks ago and has since been employed by Peter M. Adams. He has made a distinctly favorable impression upon all whom he met during his short residence in our city.

The young couple will live with the bride's mother on North street.

Thursday afternoon the Senior boys defeated the Sophomores in basket ball by a score of 31 to 23, after having been defeated twice before.

Tonight one of the musical treats of the season will be offered, when the Ripon College Glee Club will give a concert in the assembly room. The club has received flattering press notices from other cities and is highly recommended. The program will be a varied one, sure to appeal to every one. An admission fee of 35 cents will be charged, students 25 cents. This attraction is too good to miss.

The Junior girls, by defeating the Seniors last Friday evening by the score of 14 to 4, won the basket ball championship of the school. The game was more exciting than the score would indicate, and was witnessed by an enthusiastic crowd. After the game the cup was awarded to the victors by Dr. Bischoff. Following this impressive ceremony, the teams each gave their yells and disbanded for the season.

One of the most enjoyable numbers of the lecture course was given by Dr. Charles Eastman last Friday night. Dr. Eastman is a full blooded Sioux, and lived with his tribe until he was twelve years of age. His father then sent him to Beloit college in this state, after which he attended Dartmouth and Harvard. He is now a practicing physician, but devotes most of his time to the study of the customs, habits and traditions of his race. Dr. Eastman talked to the school at 1:30 in addition to his lecture in the evening. In both addresses he presented the Indian in a new light. In his afternoon address he told of the humor of the Indian, a quality which the average white would not believe the stolid red man possessed. Dr. Eastman showed himself to be a living proof of his contention. In the evening he delivered one of the finest addresses ever heard from the rostrum. He brought out all the good qualities of the Indians, their courtesy, respect for women, their excellent training for children. The contrast he drew between Indian and white by no means favored the white, for the truth of Dr. Eastman's criticisms could not be denied. After the lecture the Athenaeum and Ohyesa societies entertained the speaker at a very pleasant reception. Dr. Eastman, it may be interesting to know, is the original "Ohyesa" after which the girls' society is named. "Ohyesa" means "winner," and is indeed a fit name for this man who has risen so far above the average level of his people.

AMERICAN FENCE

What makes a good fence? Should it have wire hard as flint made with the highest carbon the same as the makers of American fence put into its piano wire? Or should it be a soft wire such as they put into their weaving wire that is sold to manufacturers of wire cloth? Neither—it should be a medium wire that many years' experience has shown to be exactly right for the purpose. The American Steel & Wire Co. makes every kind of wire that is used, beginning with its own mines, through its own furnaces and steel and wire mills and they know what is the right kind of steel to use for a fence. Trust their judgment.

Should a good fence have a rigid stay? No—we believe in the hinged joint that is strong, flexible, yielding to pressure like a spring bed and snapping back again to its place. Flexibility is its life. A pneumatic tire on a bicycle is more durable than a solid tire for this reason. American fence is made of large wires thoroughly galvanized and proof against weather.

We loan you a stretcher to put it up with.

IT'S ALWAYS BAD

The Best of Backs are Bad When They Ache, and Stevens Point People Know It.

A bad back is always bad. Bad at night when bedtime comes. Bad at night when morning comes. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it? Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ailment.

If you don't, some Stevens Point people do. Read a case of it: Emil G. Betlach, 412 Elk street, Stevens Point, Wis., says: "My back was very lame and weak and pained me so intensely at times that it was all I could do to get about. I did not rest well and this resulted in a tired, worn out feeling when I got up in the morning. After stooping, I was unable to straighten without taking hold of something for support. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, I got a box at Taylor Bros.' Drug Store and began their use. In a few days my trouble left me and at that time I was so pleased that I told of my experience in a public statement. I willingly confirm my former testimonial. Once in a while I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and my kidneys are thus kept in good working order."

Trial by Jury

By MARTHA V. MONROE

Copyright, 1911, by American Press Association

"Jim Turnlee," said the colored judge, "yo' is charged wid de killing ob Mose Harkins. De persecutin' at to'ney mus' do eberything he kin to conflict yo' an' yo' lawyer what de co't giv yo' has got to do eberything he kin to get yo' off. Mr. Persecutin' Attorney, open de case."

The prosecuting attorney rose and said:

"Jim Turnlee, what fo' yo' kill Mose Harkins?"

"I didn't kill Mose Harkins," replied the accused, much excited.

"Yes, yo' did; yo' know yo' did," Turning to the court: "We shall prove, yo' honah, dat de prisoner done de deed wid malice aforethought, on de impulse ob de moment. In de early mawnin' he heered a rooster crowin', an' he dreamed ob fried chicken fo' breakfast. Wid blood in he eye, he got up an' went to de farm ob Mose Harkins, opened de henhouse do', went in an' grab a chicken by de leg. De squawkin' roused Mose Harkins. He got out ob bed, frowned up de window an' looked out. De dawn was breakin', an' Jim Turnlee, he heerd inside de henhouse, didn't see Mose lookin' out ob de window; but, heerd de window open, he stand in de henhouse to hide. Mose go way from de window an' git he shotgun an' shoot Mose in de henhouse. Den Jim he shot, too, an' Mose drop back dead. But am de circumstances ob de case, Jim Turnlee he done de murder, an' de persecutor prove to de court dat yo' kin't believe 'im."

The state attorney sat down, and the counsel for the defense arose.

"Jim Turnlee," he said suavely.

The prisoner started.

"What yo' lookin' wid out ob dem eyes ob yo' own fo'? Yo' kin't gwine to fight a nigger ob yildents, yo' gwine to prove dat yo' didn't kill Mose Harkins."

If this was intended to restore the prisoner's equanimity it failed. Jim looked more than ever as if he must defend himself by killing the judge, jury and spectators. His counsel proceeded:

"Jim Turnlee, tell de co't what yo' were on de mawnin' dat Mose Harkins was killed."

"I was in ma bed."

"What was yo' doin' in bed?"

"Sleepin'."

"Hold on dah," interposed the prosecutor, "if yo' was asleep how do yo' know what yo' were? Might 'a' been stealin' chickens."

The prisoner looked ready to break and run.

"Yo' honah," said counsel for defense, "de gentlemen said in de openin' argyfyer dat ma client was dreamin' ob fried chicken fo' breakfast. How he know what ma client was dreamin' 'bout, I like to know? An' de persecutor said dat Jim was in de henhouse. If Jim was in de henhouse, how did Mose know it was Jim what shot him?"

"I didn't say Mose said Jim shot him. Mose was daid enyhow."

"How yo' gwine to prove dat de nigger in de henhouse was Jim?"

"How I gwine to prove dat?"

"Yes. How yo' gwine to prove dat?"

"Yo' honah, hab I got to prove 'twas Jim in de henhouse when Mose was killed?"

The judge looked puzzled and finally said:

"Mose was killed, wasn't he?"

"Sartin, sure."

"An' a nigger in de henhouse shot him?"

"Yes, judge."

"Den since Jim heerd de rooster crow an' dreamed ob fried chicken fo' breakfast de 'pinion ob de co't is dat Jim got up an' went to de henhouse fo' to git a chicken. Dat's what ebery nigger would 'a' done. An' if Jim was in de henhouse when Mose shot in dar berry likely Jim shot back. Enyhow, I would if I'd 'a' been dar, yo' bet."

"Much 'bliged, yo' honah, fo' givin' me ma line ob argyfyin'. De 'groun' on which ma client stands is self defense."

"How yo' make dat out?" asked the prosecutor.

"Ef a nigger was shootin' at yo' wouldn't yo' shoot back?"

"Yes—no."

"I leabe it to de gen'lemen ob de jury if dey was in a henhouse stealin' chickens an' de owner ob de chickens was shootin' at 'em wouldn't dey shoot back?"

The jury consulted, and finally the foreman gave their reply.

"De jury thinks dat if dey was in de henhouse an' Mose Harkins was shootin' at 'em dey wouldn't need to shoot back, 'cose Mose couldn't hit a ba'n."

This decision was quite a setback for the defense, but the prisoner's counsel was equal to the occasion.

"Yo' honah," he said, "ef Mose couldn't hit a ba'n how cum de use ob Jim's shootin' back?"

At this juncture the widow of the murdered man came into court with some very special evidence, as was indicated by the expression on her face. It was this:

"Ma husband, heerdin' some one in de chicken house, got up an' got de gun fo' to shoot. But it was no' da'k, judge. In de room dat he got de wrong end ob de gun agin de stonck, an' when he put de gun out ob de window de trigger knock agin de sill, and dat's wha' killed him."

"De prisoner is discharged."

WASHING FURNITURE.

Easy to Restore Tarnished Pieces to Original Freshness.

"Very few people know that furniture ought to be washed," said a salesman in the furniture section of a large department store. "Yet," he continued, "it is the best thing one can do to keep furniture looking as well as it should. One should take a bucket of tepid rain-water and make a suds with a good pure soap. Then with a soft piece of cheesecloth all the woodwork should be washed. It is astonishing how much dirt will come off. A second piece of cheesecloth should be wrung dry out of hot water. On this should be poured a tablespoon of first class furniture polish. The heat will spread the polish through the cloth. Next the furniture should be gone over with the second cloth. There will be no need of putting on more polish, for that much will do all one needs. Too many persons make the mistake of using too much polish and leaving it thick on the furniture, where it looks dauby and where it gathers more dirt."

There is furniture in homes today that is cast off because of its appearance when it might be brought back to its original freshness by this simple process of washing. Many persons do not know that a fine bit of mahogany is improved by careful washing, and hundreds of pianos have never been more than dusted in years. A square of cheesecloth for the washing and another for the polishing will do the work, and the result will well repay the effort.—Indianapolis News.

HOT DRINKS.

If Taken Above 130 Degrees They Injure the Stomach.

Many people without realizing it are in the habit of drinking tea at much too high a temperature. Sir Henry Thompson points out in his book on "Diet in Relation to Age and Activity."

"Few persons are aware that they habitually swallow hot liquids, tea especially, at a temperature which if applied to the hands or feet would inflict painful scalds. Most tea drinkers take it about 140 to 145 degrees F., which the mouth bears very well if slowly sipped, while the cup itself is too hot to be held by any hand."

"But the habit of swallowing such tea is injurious to the stomach, and it ought not to be taken above 130 degrees or so. Again, water at 120 degrees, which feels a little more than lukewarm in the mouth, causes severe pain if the hand is dipped in it and cannot be endured."

He has, however, some good words to say for the early morning tea.

"This morning tea in any case should be taken at least an hour and a half before the first meal of the day. For many years I have been accustomed to write for an hour every morning in bed after tea, as I am doing at this moment, and at no time do I find the brain clearer for work, while the appetite for solid food is excellent when the hour for breakfast arrives."

Trudging For the Wash.

The Portuguese country people as a usual thing have great physical endurance, doubtless as a result of the "survival of the fittest" for many generations. The laundry workers are an example of this. People come in from long distances to get soiled clothes of city customers. The clothes will be placed in big panniers on the family donkey, and the peasants will start back late in the afternoon. Some of them will travel all night, and it will be sunup before they reach their homes, many miles from Lisbon or Oporto. A day or two later they are trudging back to deliver the clothes, now spotlessly clean, and to get another lot from the same patron. Many a countryman and his wife take a jaunt of fifteen miles or more, which makes one think that there might be many who could rival the feats of Weston and O'Leary as walkers if they tried.—Christian Herald.

An Early "Trust."

As an example of trusts and monopolies prevalent even in that early day it may be mentioned that in 1750 one Benjamin Crabb obtained the exclusive right to make sperm candles in Massachusetts for fourteen years. A year later, however, a factory was started in Providence, R. I., and within the decade there were eight factories in New England and one in Philadelphia. Their output greatly reduced the price of candles, which not long before sold for 5 shillings a pound. In those days $1.25 was worth fully three times as much as it is now.—N. Hudson Moore in Designer.

The Sixteenth Century Critic.

"But why, prithee," contended the first critic, "should this new playwright, Shixpur, have introduced a comic gravedigging scene into his tragedy, perdie?"

"'Tis easy of solution, by hen," answered the second critic. "Our author hath put in gravediggers for the purpose of unearthing a plot! Boy, a cup of sack!"

Cookery Points

Pare, quarter and core one dozen good cooking apples, steam over hot water until just tender, then finish cooking with three-quarters of a cupful of sugar and a grating of lemon peel and just enough of the lemon juice to keep the apples from sticking. When quite dry beat to a pulp.

Melt four tablespoonfuls of butter and cook in it four tablespoonfuls of cornstarch. Add gradually the apple pulp and the yolks of four eggs, beaten slightly. Cook over hot water until the eggs are set, then put aside to cool. Shape into cylinder croquettes, dip into egg and crumbs and fry in deep, hot fat. If you do not wish to use so many eggs, three will do by substituting more cornstarch, a tablespoonful for each egg, or if you have stale sponge cake or macaroons or toasted biscuit substitute these for the eggs and cornstarch. The mixture should be as soft as you can handle conveniently. These are delicious served with a roast of pork or goose.

Spanish Nougat.

Ingredients are one and a half cupfuls of brown sugar, one-half cupful pale syrup, one-half cupful water, white of one egg, one teaspoonful vanilla, one cupful chopped mixed nut kernels. Boil sugar, syrup and water, stirring gently once only. When cook sufficiently to reach the "soft ball" stage, remove the mixture from immediate heat and beat the white of the egg to a stiff white froth until it can be cut through with a knife without breaking. On to this pour gently half the above mixture, beating it up constantly. The other half of the syrup still in the pan must now be boiled until on dropping some into cold water it becomes brittle, then beat this also into the half with the egg mixture. Now add flavoring and nuts. Have ready a pan lined well with waved paper and into this pour the mixture and allow it to get cold before cutting in cubes.

A Good Dessert.

Souffle of Apples with a Border of Rice.—Prepare the rice in cream, etc., as for rice cake, and keep it of a strong, solid substance. Dress it round a buttered dish about three inches high; give it a nice shape, level and smooth. Have ready an apple marmalade, very thick. Mix with it four yolks of eggs well beaten, a small piece of butter and a pinch of salt; warm it upon the stove; then take the whites of four eggs well whipped, mix very lightly with the marmalade, put the whole in the middle of the rice and set in a moderately heated oven. When the souffle rises high send in to table at once or it will fall. Some cooks hold a salamander over it just before taking into the room.

Filled Cookies.

Cream together one cupful of sugar and two-thirds cupful of butter, add one egg, two-thirds teaspoonful cream tartar, one-third teaspoonful soda, four teaspoonfuls sweet milk, one teaspoonful vanilla, flour to make stiff; chill, roll very thin, put filling on one cookie, lay another over it; bake in quick oven.

Date Filling for Filled Cookies.—Stew one-half pound dates and one-half cupful of milk and water together with one-half cupful sugar and one-half cupful shredded coconut till dates are soft. Cool before using.

Fine Peanut Wafers.

One quart of peanuts, one-half cupful of butter, one cupful of granulated sugar, one and one-half cupfuls of flour, two-thirds of a cupful of milk and one teaspoonful of vanilla. Chop nutsmeats rather coarsely, cream the butter, add the sugar gradually and beat until very, very light. Add milk and flour alternately, then the vanilla, beating continually. Drop on greased tin from the end of a knife, placing them very far apart. Do not bake more than six at a time, as they are to be doubled over while hot, and they harden quickly.

Devil's Food.

Boil one cupful of bitter chocolate, one cupful of sour milk, one cupful of brown sugar and set aside until cool. Beat to a cream one cupful of granulated sugar, one scant cupful of butter; add three eggs, well beaten, and one cupful of sour milk. After this has been beaten add your cold chocolate, one teaspoonful of vanilla, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, sifted, with a teaspoonful of baking soda. Be sure to use baking soda and not baking powder. Then beat all together. Bake in layers in a hot oven.

Rocks.

One and one-half cupfuls of brown sugar, one cupful of butter, three eggs, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, three-fourth cupful of raisins, one cupful of chopped walnuts, one teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of cinnamon and two tablespoonfuls of molasses. Drop in teaspoonfuls.

Used Instead of Bonbons.

Large raisins seeded and stuffed with minced walnuts make a nice sweet to serve instead of bonbons at the end of a dinner.

He is One of Our Depositors

Three years ago two brothers came to our city to live. They were willing workers and soon found employment. The younger brother, when paid by his employer, talked over with him the matter of banking his money, and the following day started a small account. The older brother deemed it wiser to put his money where he could look at it. One day he discovered that all of his savings in the old pocketbook had been stolen. Today the younger brother has a nice little bank account to his credit, and the older brother is just starting in, as he did three years ago. Like the younger brother, why don't you start an account with us today? It is not wise to leave money around the house. Someone may take it. We will pay you the highest rate of interest on savings and time deposits. All business confidential.

After the Wild Oats What?

LET Us admit that all young men sow wild oats. Some people claim that wild oats are necessary—that youth must exhaust its energies. Let us admit this. So good.

But, After the Wild Oats. What?

Wild oats are not nourishing as steady diet. The thing or incident or happening forgiven in the young man is abhorrent in the older one. Many a good man has kicked up his heels in the youthful days, from sheer joy of living; but the years of discretion come. Be somebody. Don't frivol away your time. YOU may justly be proud of your footwear if you use the proper care in getting the right shoe dealer.

No matter what the quality of a shoe, it must be fitted to your feet properly to answer the purpose for which it was intended. FAMINE FOLLOWS PLAGUE IN CHINA

A CROWDED, GARBAGE-STREWN CHINESE STREET

FOLLOWING close on the heels of the plague, a great famine is sweeping over the Chinese empire, and the victims of the dual persecution are now numbered by the tens of thousands. The plague is bad enough, but the famine will be ten times worse. Already hundreds are dying from lack of food, yet these hundreds will number thousands and tens of thousands before the first scanty rice crop furnishes relief. From the relief committees of the interior comes word that one million people will die before the first crop is harvested. Even this will be scanty, because the people have not the strength to till the soil and no animals remain for plowing.

It is estimated that 2,000,000 people are without food. They are existing on roots, grasses or anything that affords the slightest possibility of nourishment. Those possessing grain guard it day and night. Missionaries who are distributing relief tell of many tragic occurrences—a man on his way to meet them, dying on the road; another falling by the wayside as he was returning to his family with a packet of rice. These relief committees describe the people as horrible skeletons, some with their limbs hideously swollen. They suffer all the pangs of hunger until death brings relief. This endless relief is coming to thousands daily from starvation.

The pitiful condition of these starving wretches is well shown by the recent food riot at Sha-Yang, when 21 persons were trampled to death. The emaciated men and women fought like demons for these few mouthfuls of food, and the peril to the relief workers who were distributing it was great. A considerable amount of food-stuffs had been received by the missionaries, who planned a systematic distribution. Their work was hardly begun when thousands of desperate men, women and children, who had learned that there was a chance of their hunger being half satisfied, swooped down upon the supply depot. An uncontrollable riot followed. Each fought for himself and the weaker went down and were ruthlessly trampled.

In some portions of the province parents are offering their children for a mouthful of rice. Many parents, despairing of keeping the entire family until the new crops appear, are deserting their offspring.

The lawlessness in the stricken territory is growing each day. Made desperate by hunger, bands of hundreds of starving refugees are roving through the famine area plundering and killing, and a reign of terror prevails.

At Kunshan, a walled village 50 miles from Shanghai, the villagers, after a raid in which stores were looted and many killed, meted out punishment peculiarly Chinese in its callousness to the raiding refugees. A band of more than 500 are reported to have been surrounded in a compound and burned to death.

Relief has been coming in, but it has proved inadequate. The American Red Cross society has sent over about $25,000, while the Chinese of San Francisco have forwarded $20,000. It costs but a cent a day to keep one of these starving Celestials, yet the United States and Japan have been the only nations to give aid. China is sending its plea over the entire civilized world for help.

The famine situation has recently somewhat overshadowed the plague ravages, but not because the latter has shown any signs of a let up. It is still sweeping over the northeastern territory, scattering death right and left. The plague conditions have to it at first and it continued to spread with great rapidity. The dead were thrown into the streets, where they lay exposed, and often, according to correspondents, those afflicted with the pestilence were placed in the streets to die. Over 6,000 persons have perished in the Chinese quarter of Fuchiaten. It was not until the black death had spread over a large section of Manchuria that the nations of the world were aroused to the menace. And now the plague, unless almost superhuman efforts are put forth, promises to spread beyond control. At Assikho, 40 miles east of Harbin, in Manchuria, there are 400 to 500 deaths a day. The same number is perishing daily at Mukden. Chefoo reports 250 deaths daily. At Chang-Chun 800 bodies were burned in a week and at Heulan 1,400 victims were cremated in an equal period of time. Cordons of soldiers are posted around many of the infected villages.

Doctors who have studied the plague and who are now working in the affected regions say that the plague is of intense virulence. Death usually ensues in 24 hours and sometimes sooner and nearly every case proves fatal. The disease is conveyed by fleas from rats and other small animals and may be contracted by breathing the germ-laden air. The ease with which it may be communicated is one of its great dangers. Through disease-bearing fleas of rats, ships may carry it to London, New York, San Francisco or other civilized centers. That is the deadly menace of China's great pestilence.

INSURING AGAINST DEVILS

Curious Way the Chinese Have of Taking Out an Annual Policy for Protection.

Once every year, during the first 15 days of the seventh Chinese month, the curious ceremony of Yu-Nan-Whei is celebrated, being in fact the paying of homage to the land and sea devils.

Seven priests carry out the ceremony by offering up various forms of prayer, says the Wide World Magazine, and making an unearthly noise by beating gongs.

Any one wishing to show his respect to the devils can do so by a payment of 600 cash—about 22 cents—to each of the priests, for which amount they will continue their performance for 12 hours—a truly modest remuneration.

For an extra payment of 2,000 cash a number of small red paper boats about six inches long, with lights inside, will be sent floating down the river with the current. These lights are for the benefit of the sea devils in order that they may be able to see their way about on dark nights.

Having finished this performance the person on whose behalf it has been carried out goes away happy in the conviction that he will not lose any of his family throughout the year either by sickness or drowning, so that the whole ceremony may be expectoration or fits of coughing, in which they scatter germs with which their lungs are filled. Several doctors have been infected in this way and have died.

The Chinese cities offer a fertile field for the propagation of the disease. The people are crowded together like herrings in a barrel and once the disease has appeared in a house it is almost sure to contaminate all the inmates and to spread quickly through the whole city. There are many Chinese towns where pigs are the sole scavengers and where sanitation is of the most primitive kind. Contrary, too, to general belief, which regards worship of ancestors as the main religion of China, there are many parts of the great empire where the dead are not interred at all. The coffins containing the dead are placed on the ground in places specially reserved for the purpose near towns and villages and are preyed upon by dogs and wild beasts. Now, in the plague-infected regions the dead are being burned. A wagon driven by a man wearing a muffer sprayed with iodoform, goes through the streets and collects the bodies from the houses. They are then taken to great pits outside the city or town, soaked with kerosene and burned, after which a little loose earth is thrown upon them.

The rerudescence of the plague in China began in Fuchiaten, in Manchuria, one of the filthiest towns in all the east. Little attention was paid looked upon as an insurance policy. At this time of year many thousands of the small lighted boats may be seen floating down the Yang-tze-kiang.

Meerschmum Getting Scarce.

The valuable material from which meerschmum pipes are made is continually getting scarcer and the large industry which has flourished in Vienna, Budapest, Nuremberg, Paris and in the Thuringian town of Rubla seems endangered. The manufacture of meerschmum pipes is much more important than is generally supposed. The town of Rubla alone has been exporting in round figures pipes to the value of about $1,500,000 annually. The finest grade of meerschmum is found near Eski-Scheir, in Anatolia, Asia Minor, in a hollow, which in early days was a lake, in which the meerschmum was precipitated. Meerschmum is also found in other places, including Thebes, Egypt, the Bosnian Mountains in the neighborhood of Grubschitz, and Nuendorf in Moravia and in some sections of Spain and Portugal.

Only System of Education.

No system of education is worthy of the name of a national system unless it establishes a great educational ladder, the bottom of which is in the gutter and the top in the university, on which every child, who has the strength to climb may, by using the strength, reach the place for which nature intended him.—Huxley.

EPITOME OF A WEEK'S NEWS

Most Important Happenings Told in Brief.

Washington

Joseph G. Cannon definitely announced his intention not to seek the Republican leadership in the next house of representatives, stating that he would not be a candidate for the minority nomination for the speakership.

A new weapon is being forged out of the government's experiences in dealing with monopolies of trade and combinations of capital, which it was learned Attorney General Wickersham hopes to present to congress in the belief that it will be incorporated into law.

A flat denial was made of the report from Springfield, Ill., that the president had joined with Senator Aldrich in urging the election of William Lorimer to the United States senate. Edward Hines, the millionaire lumberman of Chicago, testified that Senator Aldrich had told him President Taft was anxious to have Lorimer elected.

Postmaster General Hitchcock designated 45 additional post offices as postal savings depositories in as many states and territories, mostly at industrial centers where there are many wage earners. Mr. Hitchcock plans to confine the offices as nearly as possible to industrial centers really needing such banking facilities.

Domestic

By a vote of 112 to 114 Democratic members of the legislature Supreme Court Justice James Aloysius O'Gorman of New York was elected United States senator on the sixty-fourth ballot to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of Chauncey M. Depew. Mr. Depew received 80 Republican votes.

Waldo Rogers, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rogers, Jr., of East Las Vegas, N. M., and grandson of H. L. Waldo, a Kansas City millionaire, was stolen at midnight from his mother's arms at the point of revolvers of masked men. Twenty-four hours after he disappeared he was returned to his parents. A ransom of $12,000 was first paid. Four men are believed to be involved in the kidnapping.

The campaign of the department of justice to end "bucket-shopping" in the large cities may end in failure as the result of a decision rendered by Justice Wright in the district supreme court. "Bucket-shopping" is a lawful occupation according to Justice Wright, who holds that the amendment to the code defining the practice is unconstitutional because it deprives citizens of the liberty to contract guaranteed them by the Constitution.

Stack, wealthy Escanaba (Mich.) lumberman, charged by his former wife, Mrs. Orion Allen Burbank of Los Angeles, Cal., with kidnaping their little son, John King Stack, from the Vrooman apartments at St. Louis, January 14, 1910, returned a verdict of acquittal and Stack was discharged.

Sixty-two conductors, brakemen and porters, many of them long in the service, have just been discharged from the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad. The federal grand jury, which convenes in April at Kansas City, will be asked to investigate the collection of fares by some of these men.

NEW RULES ADOPTED

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN HOUSE HOLD CAUCUS AND OUTLINE ECONOMY POLICY.

PAY ROLL IS CUT $200,000

Sinecures and Perquisites Are Doomed —List of Subjects for Legislation, Including Tariff Revision and Reciprocity, Is Made Up.

Washington.—At a caucus held Saturday the Democratic members of the house of representatives elected to the Sixty-second congress, which will assemble Tuesday, agreed upon a program of policy the principal items of which are:

Voted to abolish sinecures and perquisites on the pay roll of the house of representatives approximating $200,000 a year.

Ratified a code of liberalized rules of procedure, under which it is asserted the manipulation of legislation by designing interests will be prevented.

Adopted a slate of committees, the chairman and members of which were selected by the Democratic members of the ways and means committee acting as a committee on committees.

Adopted a list of subjects for legislation at the special session, including reciprocity, tariff revision, direct election of senators, reapportionment, Arizona and New Mexico statehood, additional campaign fund publicity and department investigations.

Most of these policies have been advocated for years by the progressive Republicans.

The rules represent an improvement upon the reforms introduced into the Republican rules by the progressives. The committee discharge rule was amended so as to prevent filibustering of the sort carried on in the last session. No member is to be allowed to have more than one motion for the discharge of a committee on the calendar at one time.

Bills under the rule are to be read by title only, and the title shall be not more than 100 words long.

Calendar Wednesday and other progressive reforms are retained. One amendment gives a member two chances instead of one to obtain passage of a bill by unanimous consent.

One of the most important reforms is a new rule permitting the amendment of appropriation bills with new matter so long as it proposes a retrenchment of expenses, the reduction of salaries, or the abolition of administrative positions. The Democrats say they will be able to reduce appropriations $200,000,000 a year under this rule.

Another important amendment prohibits riders to any bill for the revision of a single tariff schedule. This will safeguard revision by individual schedules.

DIAZ WILL GRANT REFORMS

Mexican President in His Message to Congress Gives Way on Big Questions.

Mexico City.—Committing himself to the advocacy of many of the reforms demanded by the revolutionists, although professedly bowing only to the influence of public opinion, General Diaz answered his critics through his semi-annual message at the opening of the national congress Saturday.

The message refers specifically to the application of the no re-election principle to the naming of governors, one of the chief contentions of the discontented element throughout the republic, the president stating that if a bill providing for the "periodical renovation" of the officials in question should come before congress it would have his earnest support. He argues that as the principle of no re-election had not been broached of late in any of the legislative assemblies he had not thought it proper for the president to express an opinion on the subject.

Abuse of power by jefes politica, another of the crying evils complained of by residents in the rural districts throughout Mexico, is to be abated, according to the plan outlined by the president.

He proposes to improve the efficiency of the judiciary through a more careful selection of its personnel and lengthening of the tenure of office. Efficacious punishment of judicial functionaries for malfeasance is to be brought about through the enactment of more stringent measures.

Thirty-Four Killed in Battle.

Chihuahua, Mex.—Thirty-four rebels were killed and scores were wounded in a clash between a detachment of 350 federal soldiers and 150 insurrectos Friday night. The insurrectos are said to have been shot down like rabbits in a running fight following a surprise attack by the federals. Diaz's soldiers declare they lost only four killed.

Traveling by Wheelbarrow.
"I must hasten on to Ping-Ying. This trip of 45 miles was to be undertaken, to our huge delight, in wheelbarrows, but in two days, with a Chinese inn for the night. Bishop Scott and I were on one barrow, Lancaster followed on the second, the luggage in a third. We did it luxuriously, with three men to each barrow—one in front, one behind on the handles, and a third with a rope in front of all.

"Are there springs to the barrow? Certainly not; it would be no fun if there were. Bumps? Of course. On the first day we calculated we had 25,000 of them; the best were caused by drops of six inches or more from one stone to another. I got quite used to them, and found I could sleep stretched luxuriously on my mattress."—Bishop Montgomery in Mission Field.

How He Averted a Duel.
The following is told of former Senator Joe Blackburn of Kentucky: In the days of his youth the Kentuckian was asked by a friend to second him in a duel. He consented, and at sunrise the parties met at the appointed place. Now, it was this Kentuckian's duty to say the last words touching the terms of the duel. But, although he faithfully performed this duty, the duel never took place. A murmur of "Why not?" invariably goes around whenever this story is told, whereupon the answer is as follows:
"For the very simple reason. When Joe finished speaking it was too dark for a duel."—Harper's Magazine.

Saving Trouble.
The husband of a fashionable woman, whose gowns are at once the admiration and despair of her feminine acquaintances, was discussing the cost of living with a friend at the Union League the other night.
"By the way," ventured the friend, "er—don't you have a good deal of trouble keeping your wife dressed in the height of style?"
The woman's husband smiled and then shook his head, emphatically.
"Oh, no," he said, "nothing to speak of. Nothing—nothing to the trouble I'd have if I didn't."

COFFEE HEART
Very Plain in Some People.

A great many people go on suffering from annoying ailments for a long time before they can get their own consent to give up the indulgence from which their trouble arises.

A gentleman in Brooklyn describes his experience, as follows:
"I became satisfied some months ago that I owed the palpitation of the heart from which I suffered almost daily, to the use of coffee, (I had been a coffee drinker for 30 years) but I found it very hard to give up the beverage.

"One day I ran across a very sensible and straightforward presentation of the claims of Postum, and was so impressed thereby that I concluded to give it a trial.
"My experience with it was unsatisfactory till I learned how it ought to be prepared—by thorough boiling for not less than 15 or 20 minutes. After I learned that lesson there was no trouble.

"Postum proved to be most palatable and satisfactory hot beverage, and I have used it ever since.

"The effect on my health has been most salutary. The heart palpitation from which I used to suffer so much, particularly after breakfast, has disappeared and I never have a return of it except when I dine or lunch away from home and drink the old kind of coffee because Postum is not served. I find that Postum cheers and invigorates while it produces no harmful stimulation." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ten days' trial proves an eye opener to many.

SEEN AND HEARD IN WISCONSIN

Marinette.—James Van Camp, former county clerk, who resigned several days ago, when an apparent shortage in his accounts was discovered, was arrested, charged with embezzlement of $342. The specific offense with which he is charged is the extracting of tax redemption receipts out of the back of the regular books without filling in the stub, and then disposing of the receipts and appropriating the proceeds for his own use.

Madison.—Life imprisonment for malicious destruction of property by the use of dynamite or other explosives is provided by a bill introduced in the Wisconsin house by Assemblyman Hansen of Manitowoc. The blowing up of a coal hoist in Milwaukee last week caused the people of Manitowoc and other large Wisconsin cities on the great lakes to fear that similar acts of destruction may be attempted.

Madison.—Madison has been offered $15,000 by Andrew Carnegie for a new branch library for East Madison. The main library is a gift from the philanthropist.

Kenosha.—An investigation into the death of Adolph Lenhard, found asphyxiated at his home here, is being made. A post-mortem examination of the body has been ordered. It is said that a bottle which had contained poison was found near the window of the room where the body was discovered.

Neenah.—The coroner and county authorities are still working on the case near Fremont to discover if possible the identity of the person whose charred skeleton was found in the ruins of a burned barn on the farm of John Meyers. The case is attracting much attention.

Madison.—The monuments to be erected by the Wisconsin State Bar association over the graves of Judge E. G. Ryan in Forest Home cemetery at Milwaukee and Judge Luther S. Dixon in Forest Hill cemetery at Madison will be shipped from Vermont in a few days. They will probably be dedicated the latter part of May or the first part of June.

Sheboygan.—The schools of Plymouth were closed by Health Officer Deicher because of the epidemic of scarlet fever. It is said that there are upwards of fifty cases. There are a number of scattering cases in Sheboygan, but not epidemic. Chippewa Falls.—Hugh Cameron, a Lafayette farmer, is in a critical condition from the effects of being kicked in the head by a horse. His skull was fractured and physicians removed a piece of bone from his skull an inch and a half square.

Fond du Lac.—All slot machines that do not return cash are not gambling devices, according to a verdict of a jury in the case against a local saloon keeper. This decision brings the war inaugurated by Rev. A. H. Zechiel to a sudden close.

Kenosha.—Adolph Revken of Racine, known as "King of the Junk Men," was acquitted by a jury in the circuit court here of being an accessory before the fact to grand larceny. The jury was out less than ten minutes. The evidence against Revken was the unsupported evidence of Kalm Goldstein, who is now serving time in the state prison at Waupun.

Racine.—Charles Gillette lies at St. Mary's hospital in a critical condition with a bullet in his head, fired by Ronald Strauss. The revolver was found in the Gillette home and Strauss was examining it. Not knowing that it was loaded, he pulled the trigger and the bullet struck Gillette over the left eye.

Kenosha.—Theodore A. Abel, formerly registry clerk of the Kenosha post office, is the hero of Coaliga, Cal., on account of his action when he ran an engine through the flooded districts about Coaliga after railway men had declined to attempt to bring relief to the city. The floods had washed away the supports of the railway track over a ravine 1,200 feet wide and the mails had not been moved for a week and the people had become short of provisions.

Superior.—Holding that, under the law of 1900, a new town must be just the size of a government township before it can be organized, Judge Frank A. Ross of the circuit court has rendered a decision by refusing two petitions from neighborhoods that wish to set off new towns that is of great interest in this county. Several have been formed and it may be necessary for them to go back to the old status.

Madison.—E. H. Graff of Madison, who ran independently for president of the junior class at the university and refused all assistance in his campaign, which he held was directed against machine politics, was defeated by O. H. Stangel of Tish Lake. Other candidates were unopposed as follows: Vice-president, Miss Lois Wakefield, Milwaukee; secretary, R. A. Corbett, National Home; treasurer, D. R. Mapel, Milwaukee; sergeant-at-arms, C. R. Cleveland, Rockford, Ill.

Menasha.—Matthew Mueller will lose the use of both hands for life as the result of injuries sustained when he extinguished flames which had set fire to his wife's clothing. The accident occurred when Mrs. Mueller attempted to light a fire with kerosene.

Racine.—While preaching at the First Methodist Episcopal church in the village of Waterville, Rev. F. W. Pratt suddenly fell over backward and was caught in the arms of a member of the choir. Physicians were called, but the preacher had died when they arrived. Death was caused by heart failure.

Cardinal Gibbons, the highest authority of the Roman Catholic church in America, has expressed his approval of Tuberculosis day, which is to be observed by the churches of the United States on or about April 30, and of the general organized anti-tuberculosis campaign, according to a report of an interview made public by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

The interview was granted by his eminence to H. SCALES ALL OVER HER BODY

"About three years ago I was affected by white scales on my knees and elbows. I consulted a doctor who treated me for ringworm. I saw no change and consulted a specialist and he claimed I had psoriasis. I continued treatments under him for about six months until I saw scales breaking out all over my body save my face. My scalp was affected, and my hair began to fall. I then changed doctors to no avail. I went to two hospitals and each wanted to make a study of the case and seemed unable to cure it or assure me of a cure. I tried several patent medicines and was finally advised by a friend who has used Cuticura on her children since their birth, to purchase the Cuticura Remedies. I purchased a cake of Soap, the Ointment and the Resolvent. After the first application the itching was allayed.

"I am still using the Soap and Ointment and now feel that none other is good enough for my skin. The psoriasis has disappeared and I everywhere feel better. My hands were so disfigured before using the Cuticura Remedies that I had to wear gloves all the time. Now my body and hands are looking fine." (Signed) Miss Sara Burnett, 2135 Fitzwater St., Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30, 1910.
